

In Celebration of Hihi Week March 9th to 13th with a concert on March 12th

The Tiritiri Matangi Island Hihi (Stitchbird) Research Group in conjunction with the Supporters of Tiritiri Matangi and the Department of Conservation would like to invite you to an exhibition of work celebrating one of New Zealand's least known endemic and endangered birds, the hihi or stitchbird.

A group of New Zealand Artists and Artisans have spent time on Tiritiri Matangi with our Researchers and have created some unique works to celebrate this beautiful bird. We hope the work produced will raise public awareness about this species. You can get involved by:

- Visiting the exhibition on the island between Wednesday March 9th and Sunday 13th.
- Coming to enjoy the Jazz and Blues concert on Saturday March 12th.
- Donating $20 to fund a Hihi nesting box

For more information please visit the Supporter's website, www.tiritirimatangi.org.nz and click on Events.

For ferry bookings: phone 0800 360 3472, for concert bookings (limited to 100 people) phone 09 476 0010 or email manager@tiritirimatangi.org.nz The concert is $20 (payable to the Supporters) plus ferry prices are payable to 360 Discovery.
